

JESSE RICHARDS STOCK SHOW AID

Former Ogden Man Becomes
Executive Secretary of January Exhibition

JESSE S. RICHARDS.

Jesse S. Richards, prominent livestock raiser of Idaho and formerly of Ogden, has been selected as executive secretary of the second annual Ogden Livestock Show, and has taken charge of the offices at the Ogden Union Stock Yards. His selection was announced last evening at a meeting of the executive committee and directors of the show, held at the Weber club rooms. When reports were made regarding the progress and prospects for the show on January 6, 7 and 8.

RICHARDS REPORTS.
Reports submitted by Secretary Richards and by the various superintendents of livestock divisions showed that the show this winter will be even a greater success than that of last January. Secretary Richards said that numerous entry blanks are now being called for and that he has had assurances, either by letter or in person, that livestock herd owners in many of the western states are preparing to have their finest stock here. States that will be represented include Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, California, Nevada, Washington, and Oregon, according to present indications. He reported both as to the general prospect and also as to the swine division, of which he is superintendent.

E. S. Hinekey reported as superintendent of the dairy division and told of special preparations being made for the housing of the dairy herds. Homer Fenn, superintendent of the sheep division, said that flocks from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Colorado were certain of entry. Similarly, M. R. Hampton reported for the stock cattle division of which he is superintendent.

PLAN BANQUET.
Arrangements were made for the invitation of all livestock exhibitors and all herdsmen of show exhibits to attend the annual Ogden Livestock Show banquet, as guests of the show. This banquet will be held at the Weber club rooms on Saturday evening, January 8.

The athletic carnival of the stock show is being arranged by Dr. R. K. Kandler, chairman of the entertainment committee. He reported that a contract had been closed with Ezra Peterson, as promoter for a match between Jack Harborton and some other prominent wrestler, expressing the belief that Jim London, the Greek grappler, will be induced to come to Ogden for a return match with Harborton. If London is not in condition for a match at once, some other prominent grappler will be Harborton's opponent.

Lester F. Whitlock, manager of the show, said that every detail regarding the housing of the livestock had been arranged. Carpenters are now at work making special provision for the herds, arrangements being made both for the comfort of the animals and the con-

Miss Gladys Rich Tells of Work
As Entertainer
Overseas

SALT LAKE, Dec. 14.—Experiences during the war in France and other European countries were related yesterday at the regular session of the Service Star Legion held in the Hotel Utah. Miss Gladys Rich of Ogden, who went to France as a Y. M. C. A. entertainer, and Robert W. Fisher, who served overseas as an officer in the medical corps, were the speakers. Each told a story that was decidedly interesting.

Miss Rich spoke first. She did not get to France until after the signing of the armistice, but, as those know who were there, the strenuous days for the soldiers did not end with the signing of the armistice. She told of the attitude of the doughboys. They didn't want to be coddled or uplifted, she said.

The main thought in every soldier's mind was as to when he would go home," said Miss Rich. "The war was over and they saw no reason for staying longer in France. And, while they were waiting to start home, they didn't want any mothering or uplifting. They did want to be entertained, however, and we did our best to do that."

The efforts of all concerned to cheer up the soldiers were mentioned and Miss Rich told of the work that was done in the war zone by the Y. M. C. A. and also in the leave areas. She served at the leave areas in southern France and before returning home visited the battlefields and the area of the army of occupation in Germany.

Dr. Fisher touched upon many sides of the life in the army. At the beginning of his talk he said he believed in universal military training, as the uniform did the men good, and that the red tape of the army was absolutely necessary.

Mild Weather Aid to Pastures and Stock

Moderate precipitation over grain growing states in general is reported in the weekly weather and crop bulletin, issued by J. Cecil Alter, state meteorologist.

Corn fields are generally wet and muddy, making husking and cribbing of corn tedious. Some husking has been finished in Illinois, with disappointing yields in many places. The winter wheat maintains its good to excellent condition, owing to ample moisture and favorable temperatures. Some improvement is noted in the Ohio valley, and conditions are ideal in Kansas, where the crop is furnishing excellent pasturage. Other fall grain continues in satisfactory condition, although the seeding of winter oats has made slow progress.

The comparatively mild weather which prevailed in most sections of the country has been favorable for pastures, ranges and livestock. There has been ample moisture for the continued growth of feed in many localities, excepting the higher altitudes, although the continued dry weather in Arizona is causing an important reduction in the water supply. In that state, however, ranges and livestock continue in fair to excellent condition, with relatively little feeding.

violation of all visitors marking inspection of the livestock.

A report of the publicity committee work was made by W. E. Zuppman, the committee chairman. A number of magazines and farm papers of the west are publishing special articles regarding the Ogden Livestock Show and Ogden as a livestock center. The first of these appeared this week in the Railroad Red Book published at Denver by the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. Others will appear in the Utah Farmer, National Wool Grower and the New West Magazine this month. Beautiful posters are being prepared for the show and will be distributed by the various railroads.

President Charles H. Barton expressed belief that the show will surpass that of last winter, drawing many livestock men to the city and providing an opportunity for Ogden people to become acquainted with the splendid strides being made in the livestock industry.

She Believes in Bumps They Showed Her the Way to Fortune

FLORA SHEFFIELD

(N. E. A. Staff Special.)
NEW YORK—Flora Sheffield is one of the best little believers in bumps in these parts.
And, why not?
She started out as a winsome little English girl. When in her early teens she had her head felt for bumps—just as a prank.
"You'll win your fortune across the sea," said the phrenologist. "Your bumps say so. Your father will not live to see you famous."
"Bosh," said Flora. And she went back to boarding school.
Soon after her father died, and her mother and brother decided to move to America and leave Flora behind in

Rehabilitation Funds Ready for Utah's Use

Federal and state funds are now ready for persons "disabled in industry or otherwise," according to announcement received today by Supt. R. A. Fowler of the Weber county schools, from Francis W. Kirkham, state director industrial rehabilitation.

Mr. Kirkham's letter follows:
"All you please give notice to persons 'disabled in industry or otherwise,' that federal and state funds are available for their rehabilitation. The state board for vocational education, in co-operation with the state industrial commission, are authorized under the state plan to provide educational opportunities to fit applicants for such work as their disability will permit."

"Kindly give this matter your attention in order that persons needing this re-education may apply for same to the undersigned."

"You can further facilitate this work by advising us of possible applicants for retraining."

England. This was the first bump!

Later on, however, Flora followed across the sea and joined her brother in a stock company. She turned out an apparent failure—it looked like another bump—so joined another company.

Gradually she was bumped into leading parts and her acting in "Three Live Ghosts," now playing on Broadway, bumped her into "electric light" stardom which will come next year when she is to appear in a play by Zola Sears.

"Sure, I believe in bumps," says Flora.

Not Exactly This But Near It is the Too

Often Experience of Many Men, suffering their weary condition would each tell it differently. One man thinks, on other is drowsy, the next feels weak, others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case must be. To this great class of sufferers comes Reolo, one of the greatest reconstructive agencies ever devised for domestic accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, promotes increased blood, stimulates the production of red corpuscles, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion and in many other ways arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering vital spark you thought was about to go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of nerve speed and the rebound, the freedom, the liberation from depressions that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks, to go to sleep, to lose their stand still when the order is to get ahead. ## Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it is the best all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—opens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and drenching cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
